NUMBER 41.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

When will the rain cease? Fishermen growing numerous.

The peach trees are in full bloom. market.

Snakes are said to be very numerous this spring.

The new drug store is receiving the finishing touches. Tablets, 1, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7 and 8 cents each, at the Racket Store. Cashier Craven was out driving Sunday in a handsome new surry.

of Music is drawing good crowds. Farm work generally has been greatly retarded by the excessive rains. Mr. D. Myers expects to remove to his farm in Russellville this spring. ware, very cheap, at Bonanza-Annex.

County court was in session four days last week adjourning Saturday "Old time" crowds have been in attendance at the Academy of Music the The public schools took the usual holiday on Tuesday-the day of the school election. The county Board of Equalization

Wednesday of this week. The freight receipts at this station have been larger the past few weeks than they have been for years past. When you want a first-class job of printing promptly and cheaply done, don't forget to call at the REGISTER of-

Maybe we would prefer to have some of these rainy days postponed until the sweltering hours of July and August.

Monthly.

the Valley. Rev. King, the new pastor of the Ironton M. E. church, has moved his family to Ironton and is now domiciled in the parsonage.

members are earnestly requested to at-Adolph Lopez came down from St.

Louis Tuesday, to spend a day. He

H. M. Collins, the liveryman wants the public to understand that his stable is now more complete than ever before. Good horses, the best of rigs and careful drivers.

Music on Monday evening. April 19th, just what you want at Lopez's. promises to be a very successful affair. Admission, per couple, fifty cents.

Quite a number of people from Ironton and vicinity will attend the I. O. O. F. celebration at Poplar Bluff on April 27th. It is probable that a special car will be chartered for the Saturday night and go to Farmington. The REGISTER has found them very will attend them wherever they go.

Cards of invitation have been issued to the wedding of Mr. Frank Shore of Iowa and Miss Minnie S. Kindell. The ceremony takes place at Tuesday. While the returns are not the residence of the bride's parents in all in yet sufficient is known to show Ironton on April 12th at high noon.

The "boss" will return the latter part of the week from his five months' absence in North Carolina. In his thirty years' connection with the REG-ISTER this is the first time he has been absent for as long as four consecutive ble and entertaining young man who and satisfactory commissioner. presides over the Bureau of Information in the Union Station, St. Louis. Barney Frauenthal, and wife and baby, visited Mr. John Schwab and family

The following is taken from the Bell C C Esq. "Senath Items" in last week's issue of Dunegan Ed Mr. Johnson Lizzie Mrs the Dunklin Democrat: "Dr. R. W. Davis Ben Mr Baird is settling up his business here Emer Joseph Mr Seals Houston and will locate permanently at Arca- Myers William Mr West Jefferson dia, Mo. His friends are sorry to see | Neabors Chas Mr Word Charlie him go.'

Mrs. N. A. Settle left this week for St. Louis, where she will enter the Beethoven Conservatory and take a of this list. course in music. She will take a special course on the mandolin, and in theory and harmony. She will be gone three months. - Fredericktown of Music held the annual meeting Mon- in every way as the present incumbent, held a meeting and re-elected the old lieve that Ironton to-day enjoys the officers. A dividend of three per cent. satisfaction of having one of the best lead business, and while we are not in The farmers are preparing to plant Greatest No. tard by one was declared on the capital stock of managed and most successfully conthe company.

H. B. Jones writes from Jackson county, Arkansas, that the continued to the town and community. rains have seriously delayed farming down there, but for all that he and his April 6th by F. B. DeGarmo. Other changes are rumored.

The following is taken from Wednesday's Republic: "The annual signal drill of the troops at Jefferson Barracks began yesterday and will continue until the middle of May, when the troops depart for the Arcadia rifle range. Six men out of each of the six troops are detailed for the drill."

The school election in Ironton passed off very quietly, there being but few over a hundred votes polled. The vote for Commissioner stood Hawkins, 44; Hickman, 33; Vance, 39; P. W. Whitworth and W. T. Gay were elected directors. An eight months' term of school was voted for next year.

Miss Kohn, the young lady who will Early garden truck is getting into the have charge of the millinery depart- tend. One congratulation worthy of the Valley very highly recommended tions in dainty and seasonable head-

A special train will be run from De Soto to Poplar Bluff on April 27th, the occasion of the I. O. O. F. celebration. The train will reach here between sev-The medicine show at the Academy en and eight o'clock in the morning. the round trip from Ironton will be

All Episcopalians in the Valley, whether members of St. Paul's con-10 cases of Blue Steel White Enamel gregation or not, are requested to attend a business meeting at the church, at half past two o'clock Friday afternoon 9th, for the purpose of securing a minister for the summer and for Easter services. It is hoped that all will attend. A large attendance and hearty co-operation is most earnestly

Mr. J. G. Hambrick of St. Louis has purchased the Langdon property, east of town, and will occupy the same as a summer residence. The place is one of the most desirable in the Valley and was in session Monday, Tuesday and Mr. Hambrick contemplates making extensive improvements thereon. Mr. Hambrick is the lessee of the race course at Sportsmens' Park, in St. Louis, and is quite a noted man in turf circles.

The Ironton post-office handled on Sunday 17 tie sacks and 7 letter pouches of mail matter. There were pressed packages of letters, and the aggregate weight of the mail received on that day was not less than six hundred pounds. This is without doubt The REGISTER this week prints some the greatest amount of mail that ever recent blockade on the railroad

The washout at Victoria last week, It will not be many weeks now until The W. C. T. U. will meet at the volume of mail received far eclipsed home of Miss Leah O'Brien, Arcadia, any previous record. The same was several days before business assumed normal proportions again.

Mr. Jake Lopez desires us to tell the ladies that they have this season one left next morning for Farmington to of the most elegant and handsomest aslook after their mercantile interests in sortment of millinery goods ever brought to southeast Missouri. The stock is simply superb, and embraces everything new and fashionable in head gear and all lines of millinery. A trimmer highly recommended, arrived from St. Louis yesterday, and is now in charge. The ladies are asked The Calico Ball given by the Daugh- to call and inspect this lovely assortters of Rebekah at the Academy of ment of goods. You are sure to find Run recently.

The frequent heavy rains during the past month or more have done considerable damage in washing away fences and cutting up the roads, and fields adjacent to the streams. In several instances in the various streams throughout the county, the water fords have been deepened and in some places The Yucca Remedy Company will made quite dangerous. Several narprobably close their engagement here row escapes from drowning by persons who have attempted to cross the swollen streams before the waters subsided, clever people, and trusts good luck have been reported, but so far, fortunately, no fatal results have attend-

A very light vote was polled in the school election throughout the county that Prof. J. M. Hawkins of Belleview has been elected County Commissioner. Mr. Hawkins led at this precinct, and from here west, as far as heard from, carried almost a solid vote. Mr. Hickman has doubtless secured a majority in the south end, but it will not be sufficient to overcome Mr. Hawkins' lead from here west. We believe Prof. That prince of good fellows and affa- Hawkins will prove a most efficient

> List of letters remaining in the Post-Office at Ironton, Mo., for the month ending March 31, 1897. If not called for within thirty days, they will be sent to the Dead Letter Office: Holloman - Mrs

Pilles Geo Mr

Williams Netia Miss Persons claiming the above will please say "advertised" and give date A. P. VANCE, P. M.

The REGISTER, to be sure, hasn't got any say in the Republican contest over the Ironton post-office. But one thing we hope for: and that is that the successful applicant, whoever he may be, The stock holders of the Academy will prove as efficient and competent ducted post offices in the Nation. In general appearance as well as efficiency, the office is certainly a credit

Mrs. Lottie Talbott, well known to Pacalet, S. C. neighbors think they have reason to the people of the town and community neighbors think they have reason to the people of the town and community be thankful that they are away from as a milliner of most excellent taste for the city to resume work with the Guffy visited friends in Belleview last Room 3, 7; total for White School, 26; reason that no such a thing ever hapthe first the first the first thankful that they are away from as a milliner of most excellent taste. First the first thankful that they are away from the city to resume work with the Column School 2; total for district 28. and above the overflowed sections and rare good judgment and discretion, Everet & Howard Mfg. Co. will engage in the millinery business Miss Kittie B. Reid, who has been Mrs. Hayward has been on the sick

T. H. Hayden has resigned as train- in Ironton, having rented a room from | visiting her aunt, Mr. T. F. Walsh, | list for a few days, but has regained master at De Soto and was succeeded Mrs. Hughes, across the street from the past several months left last Frithe Odd Fellow's Hall. The stock has day for her Chicago home. fad and novelty of the season. That of Mesdames Greason and Hanson. is, it is strictly "up to date." Opening next Saturday, 10th, on which occa- on, both in complete construction as sion every lady present will be pre- well as partial repairing. sented with a bouquet of cut violets. See announcement elsewhere.

Miss Myrtle Paul of Bismarck celebrated her 17th birthday last week by giving a party to her many friends. All present seemed to enjoy themselves to the fullest extent. Luncheon was served at the usual hour comprising all the delicacies of the season. Miss Myrtle received many congratulations on the occasion. Also several regrets from those that were not able to atment at Lopez's this season, comes to mention from a gentleman of De Soto, was "Miss Myrtle, may you live long, as a trimmer most artistic in design marry a wealthy man, always be hapand perfect in execution. The ladies py and never grow any older than you will be delighted with her lovely crea- are this evening!" The occasion was declared a complete success.

A bridge washed away near Victoria B., is no slouch by any means. blockaded traffic on the Iron Mountain | County Commissioner J. L. Hickrailroad last week from Wednesday man was in town yesterday looking af- the residence of the bride's parents, night until late Saturday evening. The ter his fences a little; and to-day will Mr. A. Townsend and Miss Emma night south-bound trains Wednesday tell the tale and, while only one can Phillips. The newly wedded couple and a special car will be reserved for crossed the bridge before the washout be successful, as far as we are con- dispensed with a bridal tour and went those who go from here. The fare for occurred, but after that there were no cerned, and while all no doubt are to housekeeping in the home which trains from St. Louis until eleven well qualified, we have no preference. | the groom had completely furnished o'clock Friday-transfers having been | Several of our young as well as old, for his bride. made over the creek that evening. In fishermen have had fairly good luck | The rain storm Wednesday night consequence there was no mail re- the past week at fishing, but largely in | was very severe, the creeks overflowed ceived here from St. Louis from the sucker line.

DIED-At Red Point Missouri, on March 21st 1897, Mrs. Mary E. Daniel, aged 65 years. The deceased was injured in a wind storm which touched the western border of this county about six years ago and never recovered from the injuries then received. On the night of March 9th she was fell asleep. Mrs Daniel united with the M. E. Church, South, when young and lived the life of a true christian. Six children survive her, three of whom, Mrs. Ada M. Scherer, Mrs. Mary Clark and Miss Maggie Daniel attended her in her last illness. May at least two bushels of closely com- He who does all things for the best sustain them in their hour of affliction!

the blockade.

of circuit courts have been uniformly the close of the present century brief, but the calendar the coming term promises to eclipse all former beauty of his residence by the erection the advance guard of the summer visi- shutting off all communication with records. In fact, it is said, that so far of a new porch. tors will begin to wend their way to St. Louis for three days, caused a rush as the actual business in court is conof business, when the temporary bridge cerned, judging from the present indi- to Flat River for a few days' stay. was got in position, such as is not cations, it could, with a little pushing, often experienced. Passengers ar- all be completed in one day. Waiting rived who had been three days on the on the grand jury and other matters road from St. Louis, the express cars will, however, probably prolong the were crowded to the ceilings, and the session to four or five days. These small court dockets speak well for the county. It shows that crime in our Saturday afternoon, April 10th. All true of the freight receipts. It was county has been reduced to the minimum, and that our people are living at peace with themselves and all the

at Bonanza-Annex.

From Arcadia.

Mr. Sweaney has moved into his new Mr. Dixon is boarding at "Cottage

Mike Madigan made a trip to Doe "The medicine show" seems to be attracting quite a crowd of Arcadians.

back to Dunklin county. Miss Julia Andrews is visiting friends and relatives in De Soto this week. Mrs. Price Ringo, who has been

Mrs. E. C. Baird and "Little Miss Beckwith" went to Piedmont Monday of $1250 and cost. You will have to to spend a few days.

We are all very glad to have James hope he will soon secure his usual cine when you get them started. Raney strength.

Miss Essie Reyburn, who has been visiting Miss Jennie Logan at Belleview has returned home, Miss Caroline Newman entertained guests from St. Louis last week at 'Tarpon Villa." They returned home Mrs. Young and little son of Caledonia, also Mrs. Anderson, are the guests of Mrs. Archie Berryman and Mrs. Giles Henderson this week. Mr. Wm. Thomson and daughter entertained a number of friends at their beautiful "Valley Home" several days of last week. Dr. Robert Baird was called to Dunklin county last week by the illness of one of his friends.

Geo. John Turner and daughters, Misses Marie and Blanche, also Soulard Turner, and Palmer Clarkson of seen on our streets Sunday. St. Louis spent several days at Hillside tin. It is needless to say the guests programme will consist of recitations last Friday night by Miss Hattle Aushad a good time.

The dance at Swinney's, although not very well attended, was enjoyed by CELESTE.

Ladies' night gowns, 75 cents, at the

Graniteville Items.

Racket Store.

Ed. Register-Mr. James Sizemore the country was flooded for a short came over from Flat River to spend time. Fences washed away and the Sunday with his family here.

Again the news is current that the The fruit trees are in bloom and Tot. days att for month the Swinney farm, west of town, in the doesn't make a raid in the Valley. a position to confirm the report, time their corn and potatoes. alone, of course will tell, and we bide our time on that point.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Hartman have are blooming in great profusin. arrived home from a year's sojourn in arrived and Mrs. Talbott desires to as- Mrs. Hartford Collins and children, sure the ladies that it is complete in Mrs. D. Flowers, and children of Ironevery particular and embraces every ton visited in town last Friday, guests

William Steffens, Jr., leaves to-day Monday and Tuesday.

> Mrs. Hartman is having a new fence put around he place which adds much to the looks and beauty of her premis-Although we are living in a good granite section as lies west of New we can content ourselves with tolerably fair frame structures. Messrs. Edward Coad and Scott Bateman are erecting a bran new blacksmith shop just north of Robt. Frauernicht's place of business in Ghermanville and will be prepared to do all kinds of blacksmithing and jobbing. To give credit to whom it belongs, and without fear of successful contradiction, we will assert that Mr. Bateman as an all round blacksmith, stands second to none in southeast Missouri. And Mr. Coad, an apprentice of Mr.

Wednesday noon until Saturday morn- Butchers are getting very scarce in and water gates. Some of the fencing ing. A temporary bridge was placed our community these days and it is be- was recovered, but most of it went to in position late Saturday evening and ginning to look as though a combine swell the amount of debris floating on for two or three days the road was is being effected in order to starve us the bosom of the "Father of Waters." crowded with trains clearing up the into submission as also a great many business that had accumulated during of us are being denied credit in the Wednesday owing to washouts on the

T. O. Hood, our down town butcher, will move to Arcadia this week, we understand that he and Bud Swiney will form a partnesship in the butcher business.

Mr. John Nagel of Ironton was in town yesterday. Townmen Richard Hartnell and Jas. stricken with paralysis, and gradually McLaren spent Monday at Ironton on Chas. Orrick contemplates the erection of a building in the near future on a piece of land recently purchased off the Vall farm. Work here at a stand still, in the stone cutting line. Prosperity is dition that is anything but pleasant.

about to be superceded by destitution John Russell and family are living at and we are now confronted with a con-But every cloud has its silver lining, The docket the coming term of cir- you know, and the darkest hour precuit court will probably be the lightest | cedes the dawn. Still we cling to the interesting extracts from Judge Emer- reached the office in one day. The son's contributions to the Midland extra accumulation was caused by the eral years past the dockets at our terms good and kind providential help ere > Messrs. Kelly and Marlin have gone April 7, 1897.

Fruit jar of French mustard, 10cts at

From Des Arc.

We are having rain and nothing but rain, and if there is not a let up soon, farmers and saw mill men are gone, world without end. St. Francois river has been past fording for 6 weeks and 150 dozen Files at 25c on the dollar, Big Creek about half the time.

I attended court at Greenville part of last week; heard the pleadings in the famous Max case, and I must say that Prosecuting Attorney Hines made the best speech of his life. I heard a Republican coming out of of the courthouse that night say that he never did vote for a Democrat, but he should certainly vote for Hines if he ran for an office again. Hines did well not only in the Max case, but all oth-J. C. Baker has moved his family Carty who are the best team in southeast Missouri, and they can make a jury believe that the St. Francois river runs up hill. If they ever get a spending several days in St. Louis, has case against me I will do like the old woman, lay down the yarn. Charles Chilton's breach of promise case went be careful in future, Charles, how you talk to the fair sex; they are bad medireason why Charles got left.

J. M. Hawkins, candidate for School Commissioner was in town last week. Walter Strother of Annapolis came down Sunday to begin work on Mr.

Graves' new residence. Rev. Humphreys filled his regular appointment here Sunday. B. Brewington went to Ironton on business last week. A party of movers from Arkansas passed through here one day last week and when they reached Big Creek they started to ford the creek, and when they were about half way through one of their horses was drowned. They are now making up money to buy them another horse so they can go on their way. Jim and Will Melton of Damon were The Baptist Sunday School will have Easter exercises at the church on Sun-The Pastime Club was entertained day night. The church will be decorated with flowers and evergreens. The and songs. All are invited to attend.

April 6, 1897. Ladies' hose 5, 7 and 10 cents per nair at the Racket Store.

Marble Creek.

Marble Creek was visited by a heavy rain storm last Wednesday night and roads were washed very bad.

their corn and potatoes.

The earth is again carpeted with the beautiful "green," and the wild flowers No. m'nt'ni'g 100 in dep.

The farmers have been very busy her former health again.

Geo. Reeves is repairing the roads this week. The roads are in a very bad condition, and in some places are almost impassable.

Messrs. Will Gosney, Bert DeMier The building boom is sure enough and Louis Schach of Arcadia, the Misses Brady's, Lulu, Edna and Franke, and Mrs. Boyle, partook of the evening meal last Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Brady.

Mrs. Boyle and Mrs. Fred Brady visited friends in the cove neighborhood one day last week.

Marion Sutton of Belleview visted on York we can't erect stone houses, but Marble Creek last Tuesday. Misses Nettie and Anna Murray of Arcadia spent latt Friday afternoon with the Misses Brady's.

> Mrs. Propst is on the sick list. Mrs. Heywood of Ironton spent a part of last week visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. Penuebecker of this AUNT JEROME WILKINS.

The Finest Coal Oil, 175 test, at Bonanza Annex, 16c gallon.

From Belleview.

Ed. Register-Married, on the 25th of March, by Rev. J. C. Berryman, at their banks and washed away fences No mail from the north since

Dr. Farrar is at home devoting himself to his practice and his farm. Mr. J. T. Cox has been very sick. His son Price came home last week to assist in caring for him. Misses Minnie Thomas and Lulu Hills, with Goff Whitworth and Robert Parmer, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Hale. Mrs. Reyburn has returned home after a visit to her son, S. P. Reyburn, of Arcadia. Giles Henderson and Archie Berryman were in Belleview last week. Mr. Houston Russell has moved to the farm he bought of Mr. Light and the old home. Miss Daisy Hodges is with relatives in Belleview, after spending some time with her sister, Mrs. Jno. McKinney. Mrs. Kerlagon and son, Clarence, went to Pilot Knob Sunday.

LOUIS MILLER,

J. M. Hawkins spent last week visiting among the people, and will resume Mr. J. D. Greason is adding to the his school work Monday. Mr. H. is highly esteemed as an upright Christian gentleman, and as a progressive wide-awake teacher, and his many friends are sure, if elected, he will make a good School Commissioner. Mrs. H. Dausman will return to her > home in St. Louis county Monday. Irene, daughter of D. and Violet Carty, died at their home in Murfreesboro, Ills., aged seven months. Phillip Hartman went to Reynolds county with his brother John last

A number of young men went to Iron Mountain Friday night and got nearly 300 pounds of blue suckers. This is true if it is a fish story. Messrs. Jones, N. Parmer and John

BELLEVIEW. For Sale.

Madigan drove out to our town Sunday.

One second hand Buckeye rocking churn, in good condition: capacity 17 gallons; half that and smaller quantities can be churned easily. Any parties wishing to engage fresh butter for the season can do so at once. We would be glad to furnish our valley families instead of making engagements elsewhere tion is to dispose of all butter each week and not carry old stock. Inquire at Creamery at Arcadia, Mo. Address all letters to Mrs. W. A. Fletcher, Arcadia, Iron county, Mo.

Personal.

Messrs. Rodach and Trauernicht of Middlebrook were in town Monday. C. P. Talbott and wife have returned from their trip to New Orleans, Mobile and Louisville.

S. M. Scruggs paid a visit to De Soto this week. C. W. Kemmett left Sunday for Cadott, Wisconsin, where he was called by the serious illness of his mother-in-law, Mrs. Clark. J. H. Jones, Congressman Robb's Secretary, who will make his home in Ironton this summer, left Sunday for Washington, where he will remain during the extra session of congress. G. R. Jacobs was in St. Louis this

Jake Lopez is home again after couple of weeks in St. Louis. A. J. Langdon of Dunklin is in the Valley this week. Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Ake arrived ome from Asheville, N. C., last night. and J. L. Hickman of Annapolis were Uncle Rollen Williams about one mile wants to be a modern Don Quixote and in town Tuesday.

Dr. I. A. Marshall spent Wednesday in St. Louis.

Report of gronton Public Schools.

MONTH ENDING MAR. 26, 1897. Enrollment | Male... Female Total...

Room 3, 7; total for White School, 20; reason that I wish to state, further, significant Colored School, 2; total for district, 28. pened. And I wish to state, further, significant colored School, 2; total for district, 28.

THIS SPACE ARCADIA VALLLEY DRUG CO.

IRONTON, MO.

WM. R. EDGAR, President. I. G. WHITWORTH, SR., Vice-President

Iron County Bank. IRONTON, MO.

Deals in Foreign and Domestic Exchange, and in Bonds of the United States or State.

Special Attention Given to Collections And Remittances Promptly Made.

Exchange on St. Louis and Eastern Cities Furnished at Accommodating Rates.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS: G. WHITWORTH, SR., J. W. CRAVEN, J. M. WHITWORTH. W. H. WHITWORTH. W. R. EDGAR, MANN RINGO.

LATEST STYLES! COMPLETE ASSORTMENT.

OPENING, SATURDAY, APRIL 10.

MRS. LOTTIE TALBOTT. Opposite I. O. O. F. Hall, IRONTON, MO.

Burgundy Items.

plow, but every day rain falls tion, as he should have done, before and retards work. But we are pa- making insinuations through the REGtiently awaiting for a brighter day, ISTER that are calculated to mislead Mr. Horn, called at Burgundy, stop-! schloe has the least conception of what ping over night with H. R. Henderson field notes are or he would not make and family. The night was pleasant- the absurd statement of a surveyor usly spent, as the company of Messrs. B. ing substitutes for field notes. The and H. was very much enjoyed by the very idea is ridiculous. I suppose entire family. Music and singing was that Mr. E. thinks the field notes are again, gentleman. Mr. Parson Rollen Williams of Dent so many snakes to contend with. county was seen to pass Burgundy And he takes exceptions to my mild about 3 o'clock Saturday 17-on his and courteous manner, "not altogether On Sunday morning following, between pose he thinks I ought to have called 9 and 10 o'clock, Mr. Fred Cureton of him a liar, instead of giving him a Profs. J. M. Hawkins of Belleview Red Point, on his way to church, found homeopathic dose. If Mr. Erbschlos from Burgundy on the mountain, lying stir things up let him go to Washingstretched out, completely prostrated ton and commence on the big bugs and and speechless. An examination as not be wasting his time on unimportant certained that the right side had re- county officials. ceived a paralytic siroke from which In conclusion I will say that some of it is doubtful if he will ever recover. the descriptions of the exterior secby the kind-hearted citizens of the neighborhood and received the best of they had been pigeon-holed.

ance to his home. Mr. J. M. Hawkins of Belleview dined with H. R. Henderson and family on the 29th inst., canvassing for the office of County School Commissioner. We feel assured if he is elected he will handle all of the official requirements that come under his notice.

ROWDY. From the Surveyor.

Ed. Register-In answer to Mr. Erbschloe's assertions in your last issue, I selves accordingly. A. RIEKE, will say that the field notes of "all the Number neither absent nor tardy real estate" in this county have not repairing fences the past few weeks. and maintaining 95 per cent. in de- been stolen. And that all the survey-The Misses Lulu Brady and Della portment in Room 1, 10; Room 2, 9; ing in this county is not illegal for the F. M. VANCE, Principal. | that I have more than one hundred dollars, worth of field notes in my possession and Mr. Erbschloe is well The farmers are making efforts to to examine them for his own satisfac-Mr. Wm. Buford and his son-in-law, the public. I don't think Mr. Erbenjoyed for soveral hours. Call the stimulants a surveyor sometimes takes along with him, because he has

way to the neighborhood of Goodland. correct" in a former article. I sup-

He was carried to H. R. Henderson's tion corners were misplaced, but I found part of them recently where attention until he could get a convey- I invariably refuse to survey for any one until they send me the numbers of their land so that I can prepare to do the work correctly. J. B. H.

Notice.

A year and a half ago and more I purchased the interest of Louis Glovanoni in the firm of Giovanoni & Rieke. undertakers. All monies due said firm should be paid to me and no one else, as I alone have authority to receipt for the same. All parties owing said firm will please govern them-Successor to Giovanoni & Rieke.

CASTORIA.

Ironton, Mo., April 6, 1897.